FOLDING PLATFORMS

IDEAL & IDEAL STEP

Mobile stage without individual parts

The mobile folding platform series "Ideal", available as "Ideal" and "Ideal Step", offers practical folding fittings with one-hand release without individual parts. The platforms are equipped with fixed feet and can be folded for transportation and storage. Various platform floors are available for indoor and outdoor use. "Ideal" is suitable for stages in halls, sports halls, catwalks and open-air stages. The quick and easy assembly and dismantling as well as flexible use offer clear advantages over stationary stage constructions.
